ALL BUYERS LOOK ALIKE TO THE ADVERTISER.

The question with the advertiser is how can the buyers be reached most effectively and economically.

THE SCRIPPS-McRAE LEAGUE

NEWSPAPERS

are the best mediums for advertisers in the United States. There is nothing better from ocean to ocean or from lake to gulf. Evening papers that reach the middle classes; the class that purchases steadily. There are no better values.

American Newspaper Directory Confidential Information Bureau

CONCERNING THE CHARACTER AND CIRCULATION OF NEWSPAPERS.

The American Newspaper Directory is Issued Four Times a Year.

Orders are solicited for an annual subscription covering the issues which appear on the first day of March, June, September and December, and a yearly subscription for PRINTERS' INK, a journal for advertisers, issued weekly.

The price of an annual subscription, as specified above, is twenty-five dollars; and the subscriber becomes a member of THE AMERICAN NEWSPAPER DIRECTORY Confidential Information Bureau, and as such member, and in consideration of the payment of the sum of twenty-five dollars, strictly in advance, is entitled to the privilege of applying to the publishers of the Directory, at pleasure, for a confidential report concerning the circulation or character of any newspaper credited by the AMERICAN NEWSPAPER DIRECTORY with a circulation rating greater than 1,000 copies per issue. Such confidential reports will be supplied to subscribers whenever called for.

ADDRESS

GEO. P. ROWELL & CO., Publishers of

AMERICAN NEWSPAPER DIRECTORY AND PRINTERS' INK,

10 Spruce Street, New York.

The man who reads PRINTERS' INK will be taught how to buy advertising space, and that is one of the greatest problems which confronts the successful advertiser. Some advertisers have told me they did not understand adwriting. Few people do. I tell them to read PRINTERS' INK. They get the benefit of brains and experience in PRINTERS' INK that they could not get elsewhere for "love or money." There are two things I greatly admire in PRINTERS' INK: First, it tells the truth; second, it gives all the facts about advertising and is full of good business suggestions.

No Effort Necessary

The man who wishes to get out a booklet to advertise his business need not expend much effort. All that is necessary is to give us an indication of what he desires. We will have the matter written, set it up, select the paper, ink, etc. He will then O. K. what we have suggested, tell us how many copies he wishes, and the thing is done! Write us if you are interested.

Publisher's announcement.—Our publications go direct to mail-order buyers in the small towns, villages and rural districts of the entire United States. They will yield more profitable results to mail-order advertisers at a lower cost than can be obtained from the use of any other mediums having the same aggregate circulation. These great family publications are acknowledged by advertisers who have used them to have no equal. For twenty-five years they have been the recognized leaders of their class. Many advertisers have patronized them continuously for a dozen years or more, and are at present using a larger space than ever before. In fact, the VICKERY & HILL LIST and the AMERICAN WOMAN are considered by the oldest and most successful mail-order advertisers as being the standard as to what results a given amount invested in advertising should produce.

In order to produce successful advertising literature it is necessary to have a wide experience of what the public require and expect, and to know where to follow and where to lead. No one but a specialist can do justice to a subject which requires such an intimate knowledge of public taste with its varying demands.—The Eskdale Press.

Publisher's announcement.—The Fifth Sugar Bowl. Awarded Jan. 17, 1901, by Printers' Ink to the WEEKLY COMMERCIAL, of Bangor, Me., "that paper having been pronounced, after over eight months' careful weighing of evidence, the one which gives an advertiser best service in proportion to the price charged among all the weeklies in the United States." This is the leading agricultural and news weekly in Maine. Besides a low rate and a guaranteed circulation of good quality, it offers advertisers the additional advantage of a compact circulation—27,328 out of a total of 28,504 subscribers residing within the State, and these mainly in the eastern and central sections. It covers the country districts thoroughly. The DAILY COMMERCIAL covers the cities and large towns as thoroughly as the weekly does the country districts. Has more pages, prints more reading matter and carries more advertising than any other daily in the State.

I place the utmost reliance upon the circulation quotations in the American Newspaper Directory, and the publisher who offers excuses and protests against its inaccuracy has no one to blame but himself, as a correct rating is easily obtained by simply telling the truth and supplying the necessary figures. Failure to do this places any publisher in the category of circulation prevaricators, to which class he evidently belongs.

Advertisers should patronize such publications as afford definite information and avoid all others as a rat would a sinking ship.—Advertisers' Guide for June, 1899.

Like Warfare

Modern business is like warfare, and although the sinews are of a peaceful character, the contest depends on good generalship, modern weapons and a strategy that goes hand in hand with constant vigilance.

Advertising, skillfully and rightly directed, always taking advantage of changed conditions, is one of the modern weapons that carry within the element of commercial victory.

Such advertising must be well planned, well written and well placed. We like to hear from business men who want such advertising. We plan, write, illustrate, print and place publicity; we do all of these, or any desired part of them. If interested, call on or write to

BALTIMORE WECKER,

ESTABLISHED 1851.

The Leading German Sunday Paper in the South.

Published by CHARLES H. MILTER,
7 Post Office Avenue, Baltimore, Md.

THE WECKER is the largest German Illustrated Newspaper in the South, and being a strictly family paper, costing only 3 cents, and issued every Sunday morning, containing the latest Telegraphic Dispatches besides Local News, and being served by carriers in the city and suburbs, goes to more homes than any other German paper in the State. Circulates largely in Baltimore and the State, as well as in Washington, D. C., Virginia, Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

It Would Take an Ax to open the head of any business man who can't see the advantage of advertising his goods in an up-to-date farm paper like . . .

The Farmer's AND Planter's Guide

WHAT IS A FANCIER'S PAPER?

The fancier is one who wants the best of everything that money can buy. He is in the business for the love of it. Nearly every one has a HOBBY. Some animal or bird adds to their enjoyment of life. They spend money on it. That is the class of people the reaches. Advertisements in it are closely read. It is the LEADING FANCIER'S WEEKLY with a select circulation among the best buyers of the country. A good paper with a good circulation at a reasonable rate.

ESTABLISHED IN 1840

Massachusetts Ploughman

devoted to

Agriculture,	The Fireside,	Horticulture,
Rural Life,	The Farm,	Useful Arts.
The Garden,	The News, etc.

A most desirable advertising medium, because it has such a strong hold on New England people.

The MASSACHUSETTS PLOUGHMAN did not lose circulation during the recent hard times. Published every Saturday at $2 a year. Advertising rates low in proportion to the circulation and high standing of the paper.

Sample copies sent free on application. Advertising rates submitted on request by the publisher or any advertising agency.

IN dealing with newspapers and periodicals and paying them large sums for advertising it often appears essential to the advertiser to know about the stability, character, standing and present circulation of a particular publication under consideration. The information conveyed by a newspaper directory is necessarily brief and touches only upon well-defined lines. A timely knowledge of some important detail of the past, present and the probable future of a paper may occasionally prevent an unwarranted expenditure. What seems gold on the surface is sometimes only gilding.

The American Newspaper Directory Confidential Information Bureau . . .

with the more than thirty years' experience of its founders, and with the facilities at their command, is willing to convey to its subscribers such confidential information as it may possess. It is often in a position to tell about a specified publication just what an advertiser would very much like to know. It will deal only with papers credited with a circulation of a thousand copies or more. With smaller circulations the general advertiser can not profitably concern himself.

THE game of Golf has spread everywhere in America and has an enormous following among the best purchasing classes of the country.

The following two facts alone are sufficient to illustrate the strength of this following:

"Golf balls to the value of $10,000,000 were sold in America in the year 1900."

"41,041 golfers played over the public golf links in Franklin Park, Boston, Mass., during the season of 1900," and over this number at the public links of New York and Chicago.

By advertising in

the pioneer golf publication of America, you obtain a direct audience of the golf-playing public of America.

In its seven years of existence, THE GOLFER has proven to be a profitable and desirable medium for almost every class of advertising.

We solicit your correspondence that we may fully acquaint you with THE GOLFER and the field it covers.

THE JUDICIOUS PLACING OF ADVERTISEMENTS.

Long experience, acquired skill and the special advantages that accrue from these, coupled with a proper organization, enable us to place advertising where it is most likely to bring largest returns at least cost.

We know the mediums best adapted to the needs of the individual advertiser, because we know what they have accomplished for those of our patrons who have used them in the past, and we place advertising accordingly when the placing is left to us.

If you tell us what you have to sell and what you think of doing, we will give you such assistance as we can.

The Advertiser's Salvation

must be worked out in just one way and that's the successful way. Many paths are likely to be trodden before the right road is struck.

The 20th century advertising problems are as many and perplexing ones as ever.

The wise advertiser keeps posted what others are doing—he watches his competitor as an incentive rather than for imitation. Good information on any given subject often means success—it has won great battles and defeated commercial and political opponents.

Printers' Ink

the weekly journal for advertisers, published every Wednesday, is the foremost advertising magazine of good information on every detail of publicity—writing, illustrating, printing. It's for the novice in advertising as well as for the veteran, and it suggests something profitable for both in every single issue.

To do without PRINTERS' INK does hardly imply a thorough, up-to-date advertiser. Subscription price only $5 a year in advance.

Send ten cents for sample copy.

The Newburyport Item

Covers completely the city every Saturday, and goes into the homes in twenty-five towns. It is a home paper in the true sense of the term. It is held in high esteem by the women folks, because it is an enemy of vice and crime. Its low subscription price enables the working class to read it, and no paper in this section has its pages more closely read than THE ITEM. Advertising rates are reasonable.

TO-DAY; every evening except Sunday; six pages 17½x23; subscription $2; established 1900; Detroit To-Day Co., editors and publishers. Office, 13 John R. street.
Publisher's announcement.—To-Day is the pioneer penny evening paper of Detroit, with a sworn to circulation of 25,000. It gives the news in a concise, snappy style, and its motto is to "print the truth, no matter whom it helps or hurts." Ably and fearlessly edited, distinctive in name, style, features and mechanical arrangement, To-Day meets a popular demand, and is giving splendid results to foreign and local advertisers. Six and eight pages, with seven honest, standard 13-em columns to the page. No advertisements accepted that the publishers cannot personally vouch for. All advertisers are privileged to make the most searching investigation of circulation accounts. Samples and rate cards on request.

MICHIGAN—Detroit.

The compactness of To-Day, its handsome, modern typographical appearance, and the freedom of its columns from offensively worded and indelicately illustrated advertisements, are strong points in its favor as a desirable medium for the announcements of legitimate advertisers.

THE FLINT DAILY NEWS,

FLINT, MICHIGAN.

The NEWS is published in a thriving city of 13,000 inhabitants and is practically the center of the vehicle industry of the United States. The circulation of the NEWS last year average over 1,900 for the whole of 1899, and so far this year has averaged over 2,000. This is a remarkably large circulation when it is considered that there are no suburban towns to draw from. Not only is our circulation book open to all intending advertisers, but our cash book as well to verify subscription figures. Rates on application.

Your Experiments

with publicity may have proved a waste of money and time. Experience and up-to-date methods in producing advertising matter make an advertising agency a valuable aid to advertisers who seek for striking and distinctive traits in their publicity. To produce good and effective advertising requires care, study and ability—it's the only kind of advertising that has a reasonable chance for success.

Up-to-date methods, experience and promptness are points to be considered in selecting an advertising agency. We write, illustrate and set up copy—we do any part of an advertising campaign, or all of it.

When we can serve you, call on or write to and the wheels of industry are turning with ceaseless activity.

New and wider markets are sought and found for American products.

Are yours as fully and widely represented to the public as they deserve?

Are you getting the full share of the business to which you know you are entitled?

Is your advertising looked after and executed with as much care and knowledge as you employ in your factory where your goods are made?

We are advertising agents, who aim to assist manufacturers in some or all parts of the essential details of publicity and thus help them to sell more goods. We plan, write, illustrate, print and place advertising. If interested call on or write to Publisher's announcement.—The Minneapolis JOURNAL carried ten per cent more advertising in 1900 than any other paper in Minneapolis, daily and Sunday issues aggregated. Why? Because this is an evening paper territory and almost its entire circulation is its five o'clock edition, which is delivered to the homes. Its circulation is not made up of morning, noon and night editions and street sales. The value of the JOURNAL'S circulation is also attested by the fact that the subscription rate is $4 a year, while all other dailies of the Twin Cities are $3 per year.

MARKET RECORD; every morning except Sunday; commercial; eight pages 9x12; subscription $3; established 1881; G. D. Rogers, editor and publisher. Office, 248-250 S. Fourth avenue. Circulation "JKL."

☞ The absolute correctness of the latest circulation rating accorded the daily Tribune is guaranteed by the publishers of the American Newspaper Directory, who will pay one hundred dollars to the first person who successfully controverts its accuracy.

Publisher's announcement.—The figures as guaranteed above are the actual number of papers printed (press count) less papers spoiled in printing.

THE TRIBUNE'S WHITE MARBLE HOME.

The circulation as given, therefore, is the actual daily average of complete and perfect DAILY TRIBUNES printed for the year ending Dec. 31, 1900.

Any advertiser desiring to know the distribution of the circulation both in the city and out of the city, and the character of free circulation, should write for our monthly circulation statement, covering both the DAILY, SUNDAY and FARMERS' TRIBUNE.

Publisher's announcement.—The publishers of the PROGRESSIVE AGE will not knowingly publish an advertisement which they can not editorially recommend. This has been for twenty-five years the business policy of the publication. Its readers therefore have come to attach especial value to its columns, which, of course, makes its space valuable to the advertiser. Its readers are among the well-to do and well informed, and its constituency is rapidly enlarging.

Publisher's announcement.—The Saint Paul DISPATCH is credited in the American Newspaper Directory with a larger evening circulation than any other daily paper in Saint Paul or Minneapolis. It is entitled to first consideration by advertisers among Saint Paul dailies. It is a well conducted, up-to-date newspaper. The publishers have regularly stated its actual issues in a definite form, and the Directory rating for 1898, average for the year 41,618, is absolutely true.—From Printers' Ink, April 26.

De Lestry's Western Magazine

St. Paul, Minn.

Read what the secretary of one of our strongest home corporations said in his monthly report to the board of directors when speaking about his expenditures for advertising:

"We have received more replies from our advertisement in DE LESTRY'S WESTERN MAGAZINE than we have from a combined list of strong daily papers during the same time."

Not a mail-order proposition, flooding the country postoffices with papers which are never taken out of the office, but a solid, built-up publication, indorsed by press and public.

Advertisers who wish to Cover the Prosperous Middle West should use our publication. It has paid most of our advertisers.

The Western Magazine stands alone in its work. It is a publication of a high character, sufficiently localized to its territory to make it a

Household Guest and Desired Visitor

The women of the West are our staunchest supporters. We are in the midst of a big campaign. Western readers want our publication.

General advertisers cannot fail to be benefited by our pages.

Legitimate business only accepted. Take advantage of our present low rates, which will positively be raised soon.

now asks for business along the line of mercantile printing—stationery—job printing, and all kinds of printing of distinctive advertising character.

Business-pride is usually represented or misrepresented in your office stationery. Your business—large or small—is represented by the printing you use. Represent your business right—use good stationery—have it printed tastefully, modernly. Few printers can do good work and a smaller number still can do fine work.

The Printers' Ink Press will do the printing for firms that want creditable work—work that they will take pride in. We do work promptly and deliver it at the time promised.

Write us about your printing—letter-heads, envelopes, booklets, circulars, folders. We make estimates on printing, on engraving, on electrotyping or photo-engraving. Our prices are only slightly higher than those the careless printer charges elsewhere. We fill orders for printing for any part of the United States.

Sometimes you must trust somebody.

N advertiser who says to the agent in whom he has confidence, "I have so much money to spend, please invest it where it will get the best results," is likely to secure a better service for his outlay than another who insists upon knowing in advance exactly what the agent will promise to do, although not personally competent to pass upon the excellence of the plan or list of papers when it is spread before him. An estimate covering a specific list of papers, at a certain price, sometimes ties the agent's hands and precludes him from availing himself of a good opportunity that may present itself, but which he might not have been able to promise in advance. Our experience and knowledge as advertising agents are at the service of our customers.

Publisher's announcement.—AWARDED FEBRUARY 15, 1899, BY Printers' Ink, THE LITTLE SCHOOLMASTER IN THE ART OF ADVERTISING, TO "THE KANSAS CITY STAR;" THAT PAPER, AFTER FOUR MONTHS' CAREFUL WEIGHING OF EVIDENCE, HAVING BEEN PRONOUNCED THE ONE PUBLISHED WEST OF CHICAGO WHICH GIVES AN ADVERTISER THE BEST SERVICE IN PROPORTION TO THE PRICE CHARGED.

THE STAR accepts all advertising on condition that the paid circulation of its daily and Sunday editions exceeds 90,000 each issue and that the paid in-advance circulation of its weekly edition exceeds 150,000 each issue, or no charge whatever is made. The circulation of its daily and Sunday editions is more than double the combined circulation of all the other Kansas City dailies, and its advertising rate is less per thousand of circulation than that of any other paper west of Chicago. Kansas City advertisers pay THE STAR annually more money than they pay to all other local mediums.

THE STAR paid the Kansas City postoffice on second-class matter the following amounts:

January, 1901,	Daily,	$2,399.40
	Weekly,	1,202.91

Publisher's announcement.—The TIMES now guarantees a net paid circulation of more than 40,000 copies daily and 60,000 copies weekly, traversing the most productive portion of the big grain belt, Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Indian Territory and Southeastern Nebraska. Its age, prestige, respectability, influence and following make it indispensable and invaluable. An advertisement in its columns secures a dignified audience in the best houses and homes in Kansas City and throughout the wide field it faithfully covers. No Western paper enjoys greater popularity than the TIMES. Advertisers are assured of good results. The DAILY TIMES makes three lightning, limited journeys every day through the advertisers' country, reaching 800 towns on day of publication, 300 before breakfast and 500 before dinner, emphasizing the vast importance of quick and thorough distribution. It gets there quick! Once an advertiser in the Kansas City TIMES means a permanent patron. All we ask is a fair test.

The Advertiser's Salvation

must be worked out in just one way and that's the successful way. Many paths are likely to be trodden before the right road is struck.

The 20th century advertising problems are as many and perplexing ones as ever.

The wise advertiser keeps posted what others are doing—he watches his competitor as an incentive rather than for imitation. Good information on any given subject often means success—it has won great battles and defeated commercial and political opponents.

Printers' Ink

the weekly journal for advertisers, published every Wednesday, is the foremost advertising magazine of good information on every detail of publicity—writing, illustrating, printing. It's for the novice in advertising as well as for the veteran, and it suggests something profitable for both in every single issue.

To do without PRINTERS' INK does hardly imply a thorough, up-to-date advertiser. Subscription price only $5 a year in advance.

Send ten cents for sample copy.

KANSAS CITY, MO., U. S. A.

THE MISSOURI AND KANSAS FARMER was established July 15, 1884, by its present publisher, and it has never changed hands nor missed a mailing date. It is, and always has been, "all home print," and it sets every line of its own type—does not nor never has used stereotyped plates to cheapen the cost of production. It is issued monthly (on 15th), at the remarkably low subscription rate of 25c. a year. It has eight large, clean-printed pages, with six columns (20 inches long) on each page. Every number is illustrated. Its actual average circulation for the past year was 12,083 copies per issue—no more and no less.

ADVERTISING RATES.—Its advertising rates are $1 PER INCH PER ISSUE, FLAT, STRAIGHT, AND NO DISCOUNTS of any name or nature. Samples to all who ask, by return mail. Address,

C. M. BROOKE,

606 West 14th Street. Its head, belly and tail.

Poultry Culture

No Effort Necessary

The man who wishes to get out a booklet to advertise his business need not expend much effort. All that is necessary is to give us an indication of what he desires. We will have the matter written, set it up, select the paper, ink, etc. He will then O. K. what we have suggested, tell us how many copies he wishes, and the thing is done! Write us if you are interested.

Aside from its political character (now the only German Democratic daily in St. Louis), the Amerika is the established and only acknowledged daily organ of the German Catholic population of St. Louis, comprising twenty-two parishes with over 25,000 members. It is the only daily bringing direct all news pertaining to these, and of their numerous affiliated societies, sodalities, schools, entertainments, etc. The Amerika is the only daily acknowledged organ of the "Deutsch Roemisch Katholischer Central Verein" (German Catholic Central Union) with fifteen branches in St. Louis, and also the Catholic Knights of America with 16 German branches in St. Louis, and other sister organizations. The Amerika thus has a field of readers covered by no other German paper in St. Louis.

The Butchers'

Packers' Gazette

was established in 1808, and is the largest circulated trade publication in the world. The last three months, 1900, the average weekly circulation was 45,500 weekly.

It is the official organ of the National Butchers' Protective Association of the United States. BUTCHERS' AND PACKERS' GAZETTE reaches every department of the trade and the allied industries.

As an advertising medium it commends itself, for it reaches the large as well as the small butchers and grocers and live stock dealers.

As the circulation combines two important essentials—quantity and quality—the BUTCHERS' AND PACKERS' GAZETTE is invaluable to general advertisers.

It is not a technical journal, but is devoted to the general news of the craft in all departments of a personal and interesting character.

On this account and because BUTCHERS' AND PACKERS' GAZETTE illustrates, it goes into the homes of butchers and is generally read by the families.

As a general advertising medium, it is superior, as every subscriber is in business and therefore a purchaser.

Butchers' families require the same as other mortals, and as they can afford to buy, you can sell them by advertising in the BUTCHERS' AND PACKERS' GAZETTE.

IT LEADS 'EM ALL.

Subscription rates, $5.00 per annum.

IN dealing with newspapers and periodicals and paying them large sums for advertising it often appears essential to the advertiser to know about the stability, character, standing and present circulation of a particular publication under consideration. The information conveyed by a newspaper directory is necessarily brief and touches only upon well-defined lines. A timely knowledge of some important detail of the past, present and the probable future of a paper may occasionally prevent an unwarranted expenditure. What seems gold on the surface is sometimes only gilding.

The American Newspaper Directory Confidential Information Bureau . . .

with the more than thirty years' experience of its founders, and with the facilities at their command, is willing to convey to its subscribers such confidential information as it may possess. It is often in a position to tell about a specified publication just what an advertiser would very much like to know. It will deal only with papers credited with a circulation of a thousand copies or more. With smaller circulations the general advertiser can not profitably concern himself.

IT IS EASY

to claim a circulation. All that is necessary is an elastic conscience and plenty of nerve. But to have what is claimed is an entirely different story. The time will soon come, however, when claims must be substantiated in order to impress an advertiser.

The Church Progress

OF ST. LOUIS

If you as an advertiser wish to reach the Catholic Germans in the West—numbering in St. Louis alone nearly 10,000 families, whose 20 churches are among the finest and costliest in the city—you cannot do it more effectually nor reach them with so little cost in any other way than by using the

Herold des Glaubens

Catholic German Journal, published weekly at St. Louis, Mo., since 1850. Average circulation 1900: 32,988 copies. For rates address

GERMAN PRINTING AND PUBLISHING ASSOCIATION, St. Louis, or OTTO KOENIG, Eastern Agent, 36 Tribune Building, N. Y. City.

WE MAKE THIS SUGGESTION:

If you are going to do a little advertising pretty soon, divide your appropriation into three parts; say of $500 each. Spend $1,000 of it in the way you think best in weeklies or monthlies. Send $500 to us to be invested in dailies only. Then keep watch and see if you don't get more valuable returns from the $500 invested in the dailies than you do from the $1,000 invested in other papers.

Live advertisers to-day use daily papers. They don't need to use anything else. The daily paper cuts quick and cuts deep. Address

THE JEWISH VOICE

The only publication of its kind in St. Louis and tributary country, circulating in well-to-do homes numbering

OVER 12,000

WEST, SOUTH AND SOUTHWEST.

It has the largest local advertising patronage of any weekly paper published in this city. It is recognized as a leading Jewish weekly in the United States. Those who advertise in it, recommend it!

The Journal of Agriculture AND The Journal Monthly

Published by the ST. LOUIS PUBLISHING COMPANY.

The best farm paper and the best general family paper published.

These two papers supplement each other and cover the whole field.

JOURNAL OF AGRICULTURE (Weekly) Established in 1866. The Journal of Agriculture has for more than a third of a century been the leading farm paper in the Mississippi Valley, particularly in Missouri and neighboring States, which it covers like a blanket. Goes to 40,000 farmers. They read and think and keep abreast of the times, and are responsive to the advantageous offers of our advertisers. Commands confidence; having been read in thousands of households by two or three generations, it commands entire confidence, and its advertising columns carry peculiar weight.

THE JOURNAL MONTHLY is a general family paper also issued by the St. Louis Journal Publishing Co. It is supplemental of The Journal of Agriculture, and is addressed, chiefly to the people of the smaller towns and quasi-rural classes. The combined circulation of the two papers, therefore, meets the needs of all the classes except certain elements in the larger cities.

The contest for commercial supremacy is on. The United States are destined to be the biggest factor in the commerce of the future by reason of natural advantages, resources and superior ability.

It means greater markets, sharper competition at home and abroad.

It requires more and skillfully directed advertising.

Under equally favorable conditions, the manufacturer with the best taken care of advertising will have and maintain a decided advantage over his less alert competitors.

We aim to be of valuable aid to manufacturers of the first-class type.

We plan, write, illustrate, print and place advertising; we do all or any desired part of these. Call on or write to

Rocky Mountain Husbandman

The Great Agricultural Newspaper of the Rocky Mountain Northwest.

The Father of Agriculture in Montana and its purest toned and most widely circulated family journal. Published weekly at WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, MONTANA.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN HUSBANDMAN CO., R. N. SUTHERLIN, PRESIDENT.

The man who reads PRINTERS' INK will be taught how to buy advertising space, and that is one of the greatest problems which confronts the successful advertiser. Some advertisers have told me they did not understand adwriting. Few people do. I tell them to read PRINTERS' INK. They get the benefit of brains and experience in PRINTERS' INK that they could not get elsewhere for "love or money." There are two things I greatly admire in PRINTERS' INK: First, it tells the truth; second, it gives all the facts about advertising and is full of good business suggestions.

Publisher's announcement.—In States where the land is rich, where the farms are of good size and the farmers prosperous, there the circulation of the GERMAN AMERICAN FARMER is the largest. You can tell at a glance the farm owned by Germans—by the appearance of the fields, by the condition of the horses and other live stock, by the size of the barns and care of the machinery. Let us send you a map showing where our 100,000 subscribers are settled, and please bear in mind that every subscription is paid—the largest paid circulation of any agricultural weekly in the world. Flat rate 25 cents per line.

THE KIOTE.

The only literary monthly in the State of Nebraska with an actual circulation of over one thousand.

This little magazine furnishes an extensive and entirely new field for the high-grade advertiser.

It reaches the best people in the great Middle West, where business is better than it has been for years. These are the people that appreciate high-class goods, and WHO HAVE THE MONEY TO PAY FOR THEM.

The KIOTE gives the best of service, at rates that are consistent with that service. A card will bring you our figures.

GOOD PRINTING

is a part of good advertising, as much as good copy. Any kind, every kind of printing a firm uses, ought to be good printing. Cheap, carelessly printed booklets, leaflets, circulars, etc., are an advertising opportunity needlessly neglected and allowed to go to waste.

Printers' Ink Press makes a specialty of and solicits orders for good printing along the mercantile line, where a distinctive something that contains advertising value is of special importance. Any order, large or small, will be given the utmost care and attention.

Orders received from and printing delivered to any place in the United States.

We Make This Suggestion:

If you are going to do a little advertising pretty soon, divide your appropriation into three parts; say of $500 each. Spend $1,000 of it in the way you think best in weeklies or monthlies. Send $500 to us to be invested in dailies only. Then keep watch and see if you don't get more valuable returns from the $500 invested in the dailies than you do from the $1,000 invested in other papers.

Live advertisers to-day use daily papers. They don't need to use anything else.

The daily paper cuts quick and cuts deep. Address

The man who reads PRINTERS' INK will be taught how to buy advertising space, and that is one of the greatest problems which confronts the successful advertiser. Some advertisers admit they do not understand adwriting. Few do. In PRINTERS' INK they get the benefit of brains and experience that they could not get elsewhere for "love or money." PRINTERS' INK tells the truth, gives all the facts about advertising and is full of good business suggestions. Subscription price $5 a year. Published weekly. Sample copies 10 cents.

Publisher's announcement. — The Newark Evening News presents an exceptional opportunity to the advertiser to reach through one medium the people of a city numbering 250,000 inhabitants, and suburban communities numbering about 150,000 more. Newark, N. J., is peculiarly situated in regard to newspapers. There are only two English daily papers, both issued in the afternoon. The News has a circulation of more than 46,000 copies net, that is deducting all returns, overs and waste, and counting only those that go out in the regular course of business and are paid for. This largely exceeds that of any other paper in New Jersey. It thoroughly covers the field and is the home paper, high in character and carefully read. R. F. R. Huntsman, special New York agent, St. Paul Building, C. J. Billson, special Western agent, Stock Exchange Building, Chicago. Publication Office, News Building, 215-217 Market street, Newark, N. J.

Publisher's announcement.—There are over 100,000 Germans in Essex County, and as the Freie Zeitung is the only German paper in the county, it is the only medium through which this large and prosperous part of the population can be reached. The Freie Zeitung is essentially a home paper, having no street sales to speak of. A recent canvass of the county has shown that 80 per cent of the German families read the Freie Zeitung. This proves conclusively that the advertiser can not reach the Germans of Newark by using the English papers.

WE MAKE THIS SUGGESTION:

If you are going to do a little advertising pretty soon, divide your appropriation into three parts; say of $500 each. Spend $1,000 of it in the way you think best in weeklies or monthlies. Send $500 to us to be invested in dailies only. Then keep watch and see if you don't get more valuable returns from the $500 invested in the dailies than you do from the $1,000 invested in other papers.

Live advertisers to-day use daily papers. They don't need to use anything else. The daily paper cuts quick and cuts deep. Address are always of keenest concern to the up-to-date advertiser—the one to obtain, the other to avoid. Obviously, it wouldn't be true to say that success were as easy as failure, though it's true in many cases. It's easier to make money than to save money, yet—

Printers' Ink

the journal for advertisers, published every Wednesday, is the one paper in the world that comes nearest to solving the problem how to make and to save money for advertisers. PRINTERS' INK is pre-eminently educational on the subject—from the advertiser's standpoint. It teaches, it advises, it stimulates, it suggests. It's a recognized authority on the subjects of publicity, and not to have it on your desk every week would be wronging nobody but yourself. Subscription price $5 per year—payable in advance. Send ten cents for sample copy of PRINTERS' INK. Address

How to Advertise

If you don't know how to spend your money for advertising, or if your present service is unsatisfactory, talk with us.

Many advertisers have wasted money, thrown much of it away, you might say, because their advertising was improperly placed, poorly bought, or both.

It is our business to place advertising where it will bring best results.

If your advertising is unprofitable, if you are dissatisfied or perplexed, if you contemplate something additional or new, we shall be glad to confer with you with a view of doctoring and reinvigorating the old, or devising a new, practical and business-getting campaign.

The finest organization that advertising experience, skill and equipment can produce will be found at your disposal at our office.

We will also write, illustrate and print your advertising literature.

Our work embraces every detail, we assume all the labor and worry, you get the results.

Thirty Famous Volumes

Each of the thirty volumes of The Cosmopolitan has marked an increasing measure of success. No other publication has been received with greater favor by the more important class of advertisers. Having command of every advance in the arts contributory to magazine making, The has ever been able to draw "from every man according to his ability" and give "to every one according to his needs"—whether for literature or for publicity. The current volume—in greater measure than ever before—will be attractive to both reader and advertiser.

TRUE.

MR. T. B. RUSSELL, Advertising Manager for a great London house, recently made a business trip around the world and this is one of the experiences he ran across:

A friend of mine, who represents a big American concern, goes through the colony of New Zealand once a year or so. Among the people whom my friend used to call on was a druggist, a live man, with ideas beyond his fellows. Among these ideas were newspaper advertising and window tickets. He used to run an ad with a catchline or two in it, and hang out his store window with neatly stenciled cards that reproduced the catchlines. But what used to strike my friend was the excellence and endless variety of them.

* * *

One day he asked the druggist about them. "How do you think of all these things?" The man of medicines said: "Well, I don't mind telling you. I get 'em out of here." So saying h unlocked a drawer and exhibited about a year's copies of PRINTERS' INK. "Get one of 'em every week," he explained.

YOU CANNOT AFFORD TO OMIT FROM YOUR LIST

because it reaches and influences persons of means.

Published by the oldest, most extensive and most complete financial news agency in the country—Dow, Jones & Co.

Has a wide circulation.

Wall Street is the barometer of the business of the country and THE WALL STREET JOURNAL is the barometer of the best investment and speculative thought.

Wide columns, 20 picas (3 5-16 inches), at the price of narrower ones.

Indispensable to investors and those who wish to address them.

ONE ADVERTISER'S EXPERIENCE:

There are instances where it is not necessary for a newspaper to have a large circulation to make it a profitable advertising medium. * * * A little investigation down Wall street way convinced me that THE WALL STREET JOURNAL did cover the financial district thoroughly and the people who subscribed for it or bought it on the streets had confidence in it. * * * I put THE WALL STREET JOURNAL on my list for a fair trial. I prepared an advertisement which told of the arrival of a new shipment of imported office rugs, the cheapest of which was marked $23.98, the best $475. I did not put this ad in any other paper; simply awaited results. Next day we had calls from men who had never before been seen in the store and the addresses on the sales book showed that the rugs were to be delivered far down town around Wall street. The sales made during the day satisfied the firm that this class paper was a good proposition and one that we should use judiciously.' * * * As long as we were careful to select stocks that would interest men of finance we had no trouble in getting paying results.

A Weekly Journal for the Jewish Home. Published in New York City. National in Scope and Character.

MR. JACOB H. SCHIFF, Vice-President N. Y. Chamber of Commerce:
"I am quite certain I am not going too far if I say that, were the publication of THE AMERICAN HEBREW to cease, a void would be created which no other Jewish paper could fill."

MR. LYMAN G. BLOOMINGDALE:
"The fact that Bloomingdale Brothers have used the advertising colums of THE AMERICAN HEBREW continuously from its birth is an indication of our appreciation of its merits."

MR. EDWARD LAUTERBACH:
"The standard of excellence which THE AMERICAN HEBREW sought for itself was of the very highest order, but it has been unfalteringly maintained, yielding never to the temptation of increasing its advertising columns by the employment of its widespread influence in any except legitimate directions."

MR. ALBERT F. HOCHSTADTER, President Hebrew Free Schools:
"THE AMERICAN HEBREW occupies the very first place among the Jewish journals of the United States."

MR. HENRY RICE, President United Hebrew Charities:
"Every new edifice erected for the amelioration of our numerous poor has a stone marked for the noble aid THE AMERICAN HEBREW has given to the cause. Its efforts in that line stand out pre-eminently."

Every booklet or other kind of printing a firm sends out is mentally commented upon by the receiver. It makes a good, or a bad, or no impression at all. The latter is practically a bad impression. It's an advertising opportunity needlessly wasted. The same 2-cent stamp that carried out the bad impression would have paid for a good one. Indifferent printing costs as much, or more, as good, impressive, representative printing costs.

We fill orders for commercial printing, big or small. We do a neat, tasty, impressive job. Write or call on

Masonic Standard

Reaches more New York State Masons than any other medium. Most of its readers are heads of families. They are well-to-do. Ninety per cent renew their subscriptions. A large number file the paper. They all pay $2 a year for it. No deadheads on the subscription list or in the advertising columns.

MASONIC STANDARD, 53 W. 24th Street, New York City.

Masonic Standard readers belong to the Purchasing Class.

The man who reads PRINTERS' INK will be taught how to buy advertising space, and that is one of the greatest problems which confronts the successful advertiser. Some advertisers have told me they did not understand adwriting. Few people do. I tell them to read PRINTERS' INK. They get the benefit of brains and experience in PRINTERS' INK that they could not get elsewhere for "love or money." There are two things I greatly admire in PRINTERS' INK: First, it tells the truth; second, it gives all the facts about advertising and is full of good business suggestions.

Chester, Pa., June 21, 1898. CHAS R. LONG.

The Music Trade Review

was awarded the Grand Prix at the Paris Exposition of 1900. The only paper of its class so honored. The REVIEW was established in 1879, and is admitted to be the most influential paper in its particular line now published. As a business publication, and a straightforward purveyor of facts and truths, it is universally indorsed by piano and musical instrument manufacturers and dealers, musicians and all others interested in the musico-industrial affairs of our country. Artist's edition published first Saturday of each month. Published every Saturday at No. 3 E. 14th St., New York, by Edward Lyman Bill. Subscription $2 per year.

Which Kind Do You Want?

If you are an advertiser, who pays his publisher's bills, you are likely to be interested in newspaper directories. There are different kinds of directories. Some are published to please the newspapers and editors—they are the easy kind and they are a good thing for the publishers only. The other kind—and only one of its kind—is the whose publishers, Geo. P. Rowell & Co., of 10 Spruce St., New York, have for the last 32 years battled for the principle that every advertiser has a right to know all about the circulations of the mediums he intends to use. The American Newspaper Directory is primarily published to aid the advertiser—in doing this, it also helps the publisher, provided he's honest and intelligent.

American Newspaper Directory

No other directory in the world does contain—or pretends to give—such an amount of unbiased, reliable information about the press of the United States and Canada. The American Newspaper Directory may err, but if it does it's always on the safety-side for the advertiser. With a copy of the American Newspaper Directory to guide him the judicious advertiser may decide with accuracy what papers to use to his best advantage, as the Directory also conveys a topographical and commercial survey of the remotest county of the United States where a newspaper is published.

Revised and Issued Quarterly—a Handsomely, Solidly Bound Volume, $5.00 per quarter, or $20 per year, delivered free within the United States.

Publisher's announcement.—The ADVOCATE AND GUARDIAN has been published for over 68 years as the organ of the American Female Guardian Society and Home for the Friendless, giving an account of the work carried on at the Home, 29 East 29th street, New York, and of the twelve industrial schools under its care in various parts of the city, into which are gathered over 5,000 poor children. In addition to the account of the society's work it contains interesting articles on current and religious topics, with children's, home and other departments. Its constituency is of the highest character in intelligence, social position and wealth, who have money to spend for what they need, and look upon anything advertised in this paper as bearing the personal indorsement of the editor and managers, and for this reason it is one of the best advertising mediums. Its circulation extends to every State and Territory in the Union, its largest field being in the New England and Middle States. Correspondence relating to advertising should be addressed to J. E. Jewett, Manager Adv. Dep't, 29 East 29th street, New York.

Wine and Spirit Gazette

A Trade Paper. A Trade Advocate. Its Clientele Universal.

The WINE AND SPIRIT GAZETTE is recognized everywhere as a representative journal, and is quoted more extensively than any other trade paper known. There is scarcely a newspaper printed in the United States which does not look to its columns for information and guidance on the much agitated liquor question. Hence its power and influence are immeasurable. The columns of such a paper offer peculiar advantages to advertisers. Not merely is the dealer reached through its agency, but the consumer as well. Advertisers in exclusive trade papers may reach the jobbers and wholesalers; but an announcement in the WINE AND SPIRIT GAZETTE attracts the attention of the best class of consumers as well, and is likely to create a demand for the goods offered which the jobbers will have to meet.

Publisher's announcement.—This journal is credited by all advertising agencies as issuing more than the combined circulation of its contemporaries. May and June of each year, when our trade meets in annual convention, the PLUMBERS' TRADE JOURNAL prints each issue about 25,000 copies. Christmas issue each year runs up to over 30,000 copies. Books will be shown to verify these statements. Advertisers secure the best results.

AMERICAN MAGAZINE

BEAUTY.

Copyright 1899, by R. D. BONIFACE. 1368 Broadway, N. Y.

Why "The American" Pays Advertisers.

BECAUSE, It is fast being looked upon as the great "home" magazine of America.
" It is the only magazine that publishes piano music for its subscribers.
" It is the only magazine that gives dress patterns—being the only publication of its kind that gives monthly lessons in dressmaking.
" It is the only magazine that has an extensive department devoted to the kitchen.
" It has an exhaustive department, "In My Lady's Boudoir," contributed to by the leading authorities of this country.
" It reaches the intelligent, well-to-do people of the country; the people who have homes to furnish, families to clothe and maintain, and households to support.
" It is sworn by in these homes. It is their especial and favorite magazine—in many of these homes their only magazine. They read the advertisements in it and have confidence in them.

That's why it pays Advertisers—ask any "American" Advertiser.

THE ADVERTISING VALUE OF THE CATERER.

THE CATERER has won universal recognition as the "monthly text book" of the hotel, club and high-class restaurant business. On the first of January its paid circulation was about 3,500—on the first of April it passed the 4,500 mark (exclusive of left-over copies, etc.) and it is still steadily growing. It is the largest paper of its kind in America, carries by far the most business, is the only one that offers a definite statement of the number printed of every edition, and has the largest circulation of its kind in the world.

Everything that householders buy is bought by hotels and clubs, and nearly so by restaurants, only in enormously larger quantities. The subscribers for THE CATERER at a conservative estimate equal in purchasing value more than 150,000 prosperous private families.

You make money by advertising in THE CATERER.

The Ice Man Has Money,

and he takes a great pride in having the very best kind of tools to work with. His house must be of seasoned lumber, his machinery of modern pattern and his office fitted with up-to-date equipments.

He Spends Money Freely

for all things he needs in his home or his business. He is conservative but never close. He reads and swears by his trade paper. It has been part of his business life for twenty-three years, and he has confidence in it. Confidence begets confidence, and if you advertise in the Ice Trade Journal, he will be prejudiced in your favor at once. You can learn the rates by writing

Advertising that has the earmarks of honest endeavor is never lost.

To carry force and conviction it should tell a plain story, rightly presented.

The printing must be done in a striking manner. It may be plain or sumptuous in appearance, but rightly done it has the chances of success.

We are advertising agents—that's our business. We attempt to put force and conviction (the earmarks of honest endeavor) into the advertising literature we are instructed to prepare. We can be of service to advertisers by planning, writing, illustrating, printing and placing advertisements. All of these, or any part desired.

MEDICAL REVIEW OF REVIEWS; monthly; medical; sixty-four pages 7x9½; subscription $1; established 1895;

NEW YORK CITY—Manhattan.

The Messenger of the Sacred Heart.

Issued the first of each month with a mid-monthly SUPPLEMENT.

ADVERTISERS whose manufacture is such as to be of interest to Catholic clergymen, colleges, academies, hospitals and institutions will find this magazine an excellent advertising medium, as it reaches every month more than 6,000 priests and all the principal institutions named above, and besides a select class of readers, as may be judged from a perusal of the magazine itself. Published by the

APOSTLESHIP OF PRAYER,

27-29 West 16th St., New York.

The Most Independent and Comprehensive of Medical Journals.

FOURTEENTH YEAR.

Advisers often have motives of their own. But advertisers who investigate for themselves can ascertain positively that is a medium unsurpassed in the two grand factors of profitable advertising. What are they? First:—Comprehensive Circulation. The Medical Circulation of "Modern Medical Science" is never less than 20,000 in any month—prove it any way you will—and penetrates every section of English-speaking America. Second:—Interesting and valuable to its class of readers. Intelligent comparison of any number of "Modern Medical Science" with any other medical journal whatever will find in it the freshest and fullest production of Important Medical Intelligence anywhere to be found in periodical print; and the actual returns to its advertisers confirm the presumption that it must therefore be looked for and read with uncommon interest by physicians.

"MODERN MEDICAL SCIENCE"

GOOD PRINTING

is a part of good advertising, as much as good copy. Any kind, every kind of printing a firm uses, ought to be good printing. Cheap, carelessly printed booklets, leaflets, circulars, etc., are an advertising opportunity needlessly neglected and allowed to go to waste.

Printers' Ink Press makes a specialty of and solicits orders for good printing along the mercantile line, where a distinctive something that contains advertising value is of special importance. Any order, large or small, will be given the utmost care and attention.

Orders received from and printing delivered to any place in the United States.

THE PUBLIC HEALTH JOURNAL

A MONTHLY JOURNAL.

Facts for Manufacturers of Medical Specialties

Our Reasons for Publishing the Public Health Journal

Are that we wish to bring before the medical profession the most recent advances in sanitary science and in effective therapeutics and to revive the use of many old and valuable remedies which physicians have forgotten.

ABOUT OUR CIRCULATION

In order to get advertising patronage all the medical journals claim a certain circulation. As such claims are usually regarded with much distrust by advertisers we refrain from making any claims on this point and shall submit every month postoffice receipts which are positive proof of the number of pounds weight of journals posted, from which the actual circulation can be readily computed.

Favorable Position of Advertisements

We call special attention to the fact that all advertisements are printed next to reading matter and must, therefore, be noticed by every reader.
